

Summer Reading Extension Assignment for Students Entering Grades 5, 6, 7, & 8

---

During the first full week of the 2019-2020 academic year, students will participate in a Summer Reading Extension Assignment during their Literature class. This extension assignment will take one of several possible forms based on individual student needs and teacher discretion. The extension assignment could include, but is not limited to:

- 1) A written assignment based on a student-selected piece of reading from the summer.
- 2) A Socratic seminar, where students will discuss, analyze, and evaluate a student-selected piece of reading from the summer.
- 3) A student choice project board, where students will create a project of their choice in response to a student-selected piece of reading from the summer.
- 4) A Flipgrid or Padlet audio and/or written response to a student-selected piece of reading from the summer.
- 5) A written or video book review of student selected piece of reading from the summer.
