Every journey starts with one step

For Eric Montgomery, that journey is the trek of a lifetime. Over the course of four months, he'll hike the entire Pacific Crest Trail. Although Eric is hiking solo, he won't be alone. He's teamed up with The Kortney Rose Foundation, Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation, the Swifty Foundation, and Dragon Master Foundation to raise awareness and funds for another difficult journey — curing childhood brain cancer.

You can join our journey to raise four pennies for each of the 4.6 million steps Eric will take. The $185,000 raised will fund research into Diffuse Intrinsic Pontine Glioma (DIPG), a highly aggressive brain cancer that has no cure.

Please Help Get Brain Tumors Off Kids' Minds and help Eric raise his goal! Eric is doing all of the hard work. We only need to move our computer mouse and click to donate.

Follow Eric's Journey here and subscribe to his YouTube Channel.

It's only $70.40/mile. Even a 1/2 mile donation of $35.20 makes a big difference.
